

Announcing 3 New Shareholders

Porter Scott is pleased to announce that 3 of our associates have been elevated to shareholder status effective January 1, 2011

Christopher M. Egan

Chris practices in the areas of Construction Defect, Medical Malpractice, Wrongful Death, Liquor Liability, Product Liability and Homeowner Association law. He earned a J.D. from University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law in 2004, and a B.S. in 1998 from California State University of Sacramento.

Lindsay A. Goulding

Lindsay practices in the areas of Construction Defect, Employment, Pharmaceutical Malpractice, Personal Injury, Premises Liability, Products Liability and Public Entity Liability. She earned a J.D. from University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law in 2003 and a B.A. in 2000 from California State University of Sacramento.

Martin N. Jensen

Marty practices in the areas of Business, Products Liability, Public Entity Liability and Real Estate. He earned a J.D. from University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law in 2004 and a B. Comm. from University of Alberta in 2000.

[January, 2011]

Christopher M. Egan

Shareholder

cegan@porterscott.com

Lindsay A. Goulding

Shareholder

lgoulding@porterscott.com

Martin N. Jensen

Shareholder

mjensen@porterscott.com