

Cassandra "C.J." Ninke

Shareholder

A former soccer player, CJ channels the discipline, teamwork, and strategic thinking she developed on the field into her legal practice. Her practice focuses on personal injury litigation and she has extensive experience defending health care providers in lawsuits and before licensing boards. In addition, she represents both individuals and businesses—ranging from small local operations to large corporations—in matters involving premises liability, personal injury, and habitability claims. Known for her thorough preparation and practical approach, CJ is committed to delivering effective, results-driven advocacy for every client.

📞 (916) 929-1481 🔀 cninke@porterscott.com

2180 Harvard Street | Suite 500 | Sacramento, CA 95815

OVERVIEW

After earning her B.A. in Criminal Justice from the University of Nevada, Reno, CJ attended McGeorge School of Law, where she graduated with Order of the Barristers honors in 2019, recognizing her excellence in oral advocacy and writing skills. She joined Porter Scott immediately after law school and quickly established herself as a skilled litigator, becoming a shareholder of the firm in 2025.

CJ maintains a diverse and statewide practice throughout California, representing clients in a wide range of matters, including personal injury, premises liability, habitability, products liability, medical malpractice, and employment law. She advocates on behalf of both individuals and businesses of all sizes bringing a strategic, results-driven approach to every case. Known for her thorough preparation and practical problem-solving, CJ is dedicated to achieving successful outcomes while providing clients with clear guidance and trusted representation.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Healthcare
- Personal Injury
- Professional Liability
- Public Entities

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE

All California State Courts

United States District Court, Eastern District of California

Dolcini v. Saint Joseph Health

Gleason v. Walmart

Touchstone v. Prescott, M.D.