

Karan Gill

Associate

With a background in sports and commercial real estate, Karan brings a wide range of experiences that help him advocate for his clients. Karan spent his undergraduate years working closely with the USC Football program, learning the structures and schematics of elite level college football. After, he began an athlete management practice, representing star NFL talent. To better his representation, Karan began his law school education, which later led him to commercial real estate development and acquisitions. Now, Karan combines these skillsets to effectively represent various clients seeking counsel and advocacy.

When not in the office, you can find him on the golf course or in the stands at a sporting event.
