

Steven Weiss

Associate

Steven is a New York native who moved to Sacramento in 2018. After a brief stint in the state Legislature, Steven received an academic merit scholarship to attend McGeorge School of Law, where he earned a concentration from the nation's #1 ranked Government Law program. Over the years, Steven has racked up experience working in every level of government, which informs his practice in advising public entities large and small through each step of the legal process.

When not at the office, Steven loves to bike around Sacramento, read fantasy novels, and spent time with his lovely wife and three cats.
